Police cars round in circles
The silence gathering
You never know what's next down here
Close your eyes and shut your mouth

And I know I won't last forever
If there's nothing left in your heart for me
Baby, baby, baby, baby
Too young to die and too old
To believe in promises

It's all sound and all fury
It's all reach and no teach
It's all life's cold bravado
All grown up and old so fast

And I know I won't last forever
If there's nothing left in your heart for me
Baby, baby, baby, baby
Too young to die and too old
I'm too young to die and too old
To believe in Promises

Na na na na-
We all walk alone
