I see you standin' helpless
Afraid to face a little sadness
If I follow your direction
Where would I be?

I don't have to wonder, I know definitely
That it's just not for me

Yeah, I know what happened last time
And someday you'll wake up to find that
You've been waiting around
For something you'll never see

So I don't have to wonder, I know definitely
That it's just not for me

So I know what not to do
'Cause I learned that from you, yeah
Now I feel sorry for you
And I hope that someday I can thank you

And I know, still waiting around
Something you'll never see

I don't have to wonder but I know definitely
That it's just not for me

So I know what not to do
'Cause I learned that from you, yeah
I feel sorry for you
And I hope that someday I can thank you

I know what happened last time
But you'll never recover lost time
If I follow your direction
Where would I be?

I don't have to wonder, I know definitely
That it's just not for me

Oh, oh no, no good
That it's just not for me

Oh oh, no no no, oh, no good no
That it's just not for me
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
