You got my heart there's no doubt, thought I was smart
Now I've gotta laugh about how much I didn't know
Just a little while ago
You were someone that I could call a friend
That I would turn to every now and then That's all I thought there was when it came to the two of us
Oh it seemed like just another night
The same old crowd, and then suddenly
Your eyes sent a message to mine
And I saw love right there in front of me
Until there and then maybe you're always been Too close for me to see
Right there in front of me
The room was dark, it was kinda late
I walked towards you I didn't hesitate
Not even momentarily, and you were standing next to me
Oh something strong caught me by surprise
It took my senses straight to paradise
The first time we kissed I never, never felt like this
Oh it seemed like just another night
The same old crowd, and then suddenly
Your eyes sent a message to mine

And I saw love right there in front of me
'til right there and then maybe you've always been
Too close for me to see
Right there in front of me
Right there, right there
Right there in front of me
You got my heart there's no doubt, thought I was smart
Now I've gotta laugh about how much I didn't know
Just a little while ago
Oh it seemed like just another night
The same old crowd, and then suddenly
Your eyes sent a message to mine
And I saw love right there in front of me
Until there and then maybe you've always been
Too close for me to see

Right there in front of me
Oh right there, right there
Right there in front of me
Right there, right there
Right there in front of me
