(Bob DeMarco/Michael Egizi/Kenny Rogers Jr.)

All I ever wanted to be is where you are
Whenever you're not with me you're just too far
I close my eyes and I am lying next to you
And I grow breathless when I hear your name

'Cause no one ever brought me closer to heaven
No one even made me feel like you do
No one ever made it seem like religion
No one ever loved me like you do

Baby, you know by now you're a part of me
(The sweetest little part of me)
I live to show you how you're the heart of me
(You're the heart of me)
Just when I think that I can't take it anymore
There's an angel waiting at my door

'Cause no one ever brought me closer to heaven
No one even made me feel like you do
No one ever made it seem like religion
No one ever loved me like you do

These are the days that madness follows me around
But I know everything's gonna be alright
As long as I know that I'll be there with you tonight

'Cause no one ever brought me closer to heaven
No one even made me feel like you do
No one ever made it seem like religion
No one ever loved me like you do

'Cause no one ever brought me closer to heaven
No one even made me feel like you do
No one ever made it seem like religion
No one ever loved me like you do
