Hey you, can't seem to find a way to get through Wake up, your wasting time so get it into your head Shake up, Get out, get into all those crazy things you've been dreaming about

Time out, so what's the point in all this lazing around

Your only cheating yourself, there's no one else you can blame

There's only only one way to get out

Fire up, get on your feet and walk outta here Though up kick back, you need an attitude before you get burnt out

Where's all your craving for life, Seen you hanging down town There's only one way to get out

Chain of youth - we'll break it Pain of youth - don't take it

Wasted, can't find on answers from a needle boy Too late, you lose, your numbers up on the wheel of life

Your only cheating yourself, so get out

Chain of youth - we'll break it
Pain of youth - don't take it
Chain of youth - we'll break it, it's just a fools game
Pain of youth - don't take it, it's just a fools game
