

Marshall Tucker Band

"Blue Ridge Mountain Skies"

Visit "Blue Ridge Mountain Skies" on MotoLyrics.com

It's a lonesome road, and a hard way to live
But it's the only life that I know
Meet some people, travel around
But home's always the best place to go

And it's a lonesome feeling in my mind
A feeling I can't seem to leave behind
Carolina's where I'm at, and I'll always hang my hat
Under these blue ridge mountain skies

I got me a woman back home, she gave me a baby too
And she stands by my loving side, and does everything
I ask her to

And it's a lonesome feeling in my mind
A feeling I can't seem to leave behind
Carolina's where I'm at, and I'll always hang my hat
Under these blue ridge mountain skies

Bridge

There's an old man sittin in a rockin chair
He's got the best beagle dog in the county, I've been told
But his shotgun, done got too rusty
That old beagle dog, he done grown a little too old
And he stares up into heaven
And I'm sure I know the reason why
He's thinking about that promised land
In them blue ridge mountain skies

And it's a lonesome feeling in my mind
A feeling I can't seem to leave behind
Carolina's where I'm at, and I'll always hang my hat
Under these blue ridge mountain skies

Visit Marshall Tucker Band page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.