Oh, yeah
(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)
Leave my heart alone
(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)

Spring is here and
Like a wayward breeze
The love that left me came back
Taunting me (haunting me)

He's like the ever changing sun
That warms my heart and leaves
The love bug tries to bite again
Ooh, I'm falling, the same
Old heartaches calling

Oh, yeah
(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)
I don't wanna love him
(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)

Behind each gentle word he speaks
Love bug, there you hide
To stir my tender feelings
Through his words of honey

But if you wake the sleeping
Love I buried deep inside
Love bug, he'll love and leave me
Sobbing and sighing, again
He'll leave me crying, oh, yeah

(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)
(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)

I tell you love bug, love bug

Won't you fly away
Spread your little wings
From my heart and fly away

Cause I don't want to love a guy
Who truly don't love me
I don't want the heartaches
That I had before

He wants me for the moment
Then another girl he'll see
And through long and sleepless nights
When I'm tossing and turning
My heart will be burning

Oh, yeah
(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)
I don't wanna love him
(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)

You know, you know
That he don't love me
(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)
So don't give me the fever
(Get out of here love bug)
(Leave my heart alone)
