Marthia Sides - City, Country, City

Daddy's workin' he's a Sunday Man. Something else gettin' in the plan.

Va raised livin' n the beach. Sense of pride and security.
The bible belt's been good to me. So much more that I need to see. They say VA's for lovers that's good enough for others.

Always knew where I was gonna be.

Chorus:

Stuck between the city, country, city. Always had the best of both within' me. Stuck between the city, country
,city.

Kinda girl.

Apple empire my desire. Landed here like a wildfire.

Should I laugh or should I cry? Hey there y'all look me in the eye.

Sittin' here with my back to the wall. Gotta go way back.
Gotta get to what's real. Runnin' nothern shades with a southern feel.

Chorus:

Now I know how it's gonna be. To get them all eatin' out the palm of my hand. Don't wanna be to city. Don't wanna be to country, if I can.
