When you're done
crying, puking, ignoring, drinking
when you're done
losing, smiling, falling, regretting now it's my turn to tell you where I have been and it's time to tell what I have seen

winning, lying, burning, breaking
when you're done
hosting, taking, replacing, digging now it's my time to tell you where i have been

and it's time to tell what I have seen

right where I am coming from that's where I am coming from

lying, breaking, puking, ignoring when you are done losing, smiling, taking, replacing ow it's my turn to tell you what i have seen 'cause I have always been here with my eyes red with tears

that's where I am coming from
where I am coming from right where I am coming from coming from right where I am coming from

on a day like today I am talking to you I am talking to you
you
