I don't trust you
You've let me down before
So why must you choose
To still ignore
My tears and my words
Are not being heard
And I don't love you
Any more
I don't want you
You've heard it all before
It wont stop you
From being so unsure

It's all I ever wanted
To be in love with you
It's all I ever needed
To keep it true
To be in love with you
To be in love
It's all I ever wanted

I don't trust you
It's all up hill this time
Can I ask you
Where did you draw that line
My head's full of lies
So packed with disguise
I don't trust you
Any more

I don't want you
You've heard it all before
But it want stop you
From being so unsure

It's all I ever wanted
To be in love with you
It's all I ever needed
To keep it true
To be in love with you
To be in love

It's all I ever wanted

Love was built upon a rock
That sank into the sea
It could never stop you
From wanting me
Love was there in every beat
That echoed in my heart
It could never stop you
From calling me
Calling me

I don't trust you

It's all I ever wanted
To be in love with you
To be in love with you
To be in love
To be in love with you
To be in love
