"Close To You"

time was never on our side beauty reaches for the light from the shadow of your smile into my heart
there's a flower in my field you know holding love up like a shield now I know we have it sealed here in my heart

every night I turn the lights down
slowly
and watch you in your afterglow

I want to get close to you tell me you want me too
what can I do?
I need you now
and I want you now
in my life

where the stream begins to flow a life of love that springs we know from every word
into my soul

treasure buried deep inside turns the hands of love way back in time leaving all the past behind can we let it go?

slowly

tell me you want me too
what can I do?

we've been holding on

for things to change
the fear is gone
we've turned the page
in our book of love

and to know this love is to hold it all
from high above and feel the flow of your love my love
