The notes in my life
Were so out of time
Then you came to me
And not a moment too soon
Now the song I sing
Has no reason or rhyme...oh baby
You've filled in the parts
That I never seemed to find
You are the missing sound
In my life
The missing part of me
You are the missing sound
In my life
You make my life complete

Until you came along
I searched the world in vain
All my songs of love
Were a sad refrain
But you changed my tune
Put it perfectly in time..oh baby
You showed me the way
And you opened up my mind

You are the missing sound
In my life
The missing part of me
You are the missing sound
In my life
You make my life complete

Your love fills me up
And it's music to my ears...oh baby
The sound of my love
Playing on through the years

You are the missing sound
In my life
The missing part of me
You are the missing sound
From my life

You make my life complete
You are the missing sound
From my life
The missing part of me
