if I said I mean the world to you would you try to call me honey
I always thought I knew
I always thought I knew I was a part of you but now I know no, I don't wanna be

I always thought I knew the pureness of your love everytime you call me honey but now the words you choose won't ever be enough
'cause what they mean will only hurt me
'cause I don't wanna hear it this time I don't wanna feel it this time

I don't wanna be your baby this time
I don't wanna feel this heartache
I don't wanna be your honey this time
I just wanna feel your heart on my side
no, I don't wanna be...

if I whisper words you haven't heard before would you read my lips and help them if I said that I'm a stranger to your world would you treat me like your best friend could you ever show it this time I really wanna know it this time

'cause I don't wanna be your baby this time
I don't wanna feel this heartache
I don't wanna be your honey this time
I just wanna feel your heart on my side

if I said that I will re-invent myself if I told you yesterday I was somebody else, well would you listen to me would you let me...

'cause I don't wanna be your baby this time
I don't wanna feel this heartache
I don't wanna be your honey this time
I just wanna feel your heart on my side
