all I ever know is the fight for justice all I ever know is the fight for peace Martin
so when them come to your brain want to drive your insane Jondo all dark doubts quarreling in your head them oppress wanna beat you down All them oppress wanna beat you down and down but

all I ever know is the fight for justice Ever all I ever know is the fight for peace circumstances of today Know hardly give you no chance to stay but never lose your faith and run their race Songtexte 'cause this just bearing more evil pain and when it's born then you're all insane Songtext and when it's born then you're all insane and crying

Lyrics

all I ever know is the fight for justice
all I ever know is the fight for peace Lyric so love and peace shall be all around us freedom and justice deep within Liedertexte so love and peace shall be all around us freedom and justice deep within
