

Martin Jondo

"Running For Gold"

Visit "Running For Gold" on MotoLyrics.com

I see the confronted youth well they don't know which way to choose now Martin and I can see them searching in the city but I say oh my God yeah oh my Lord what a pity 'cause I see Jondo
them running and running and running for this gold
them running and running and running for this gold Running them are running yeah and running Lord them are running yeah
For and running see them are running yeah Lord Lord them are Gold running for this crazy gold now so here I come to take your illusion Songtexte and give you some rootsrock vibration and I say ain't the blood of the of the children teach us the truth we've Songtext got to find new ways to choose we've got to turn this old way Lyrics loose instead of running and running and running for this gold Lyric running and running and running for this gold

running and running and running for this gold Liedertexte
the victory of our revolution it won't reach us over night Liedertext all people should know people should know what's coming up fast coming up fast Alle easily is tumbling down so you should build up your house on stone instead of Martin
running and running and running for this gold
running and running and running for this gold Jondo running and running and running for this gold

Text By Hasan

