The thoughts I have of you I treasure
The good times and the bad, we'll share forever more
Somehow, you've changed and you just didn't make it through
But I believe that one day, you'll have to know
That I'm still in love with you

At times we couldn't understand each other
And though we tried we couldn't keep from fallin'
Somehow, somewhere our love had lost its way
And now I feel it's over, it's hard to say
But I love you just the same

REFRAIN:

It's been so long since I had you by my side
I don't even know what to say or do
I tried so hard to get you off my mind
But I love you still try to understand
When I'm all alone...
I still can feel the pain you've left behind

The thoughts I have of you I treasure
The good times and the bad, we'll share forever more
Somehow, you've changed and you just didn't make it
through
But I believe that one day, you'll have to know
That I'm still in love with you

At times we couldn't understand each other
And though we tried we couldn't keep from fallin'
Somehow, somewhere our love had lost its way
And now I feel it's over, it's hard to say
But I love you just the same

REFRAIN:

It's been so long since I had you by my side
I don't even know what to say or do
I tried so hard to get you off my mind
But I love you still try to understand
When I'm all alone...
I still can feel the pain you've left behind

Thoughts I have of you I'll always treasure
The good times and the bad we'll share forever more
Somehow, somewhere our love will find a way
But I believe that one day
I'll hear you say that you
Love me all the way
