You and me were meant to be Back when in love was what to be To know what truth was there to see Was harder than keeping you close to me

Today I know that friends can be more than good friends like you and me the worst of what this story tells is me in love like no one else with you

*Made me believe in you blindfolded by you scolded by thoughts of you

Please don't throw my love away what if you need this love someday please don't push it might go away what if you come back nevertheless no
Please don't throw my love away
Don't you go taking for granted after all I gave Don't throw this love away
Can't you see there's nothing else nobody else

But you and me not long ago were more than friends we were lovers in a roll Please tell me tonight
That night you were in love
As you were making me more and more in love with you
