7 o'clock in the morning
And I don't know where I am
Pictures in my head, they will make me understand
Tomorrow is a secret
And today is just a dream
Daylight is forbidden when the night invites me in

Give me time
Give me just a little time
In my mind
You will always be the one

7 o'clock in the evening
And I don't know what to say
If I listen to a story she may not go insane
Time was not a reason, love was not the way
But if I go to heaven, I'll be calling out your name

Give me time
Give me just a little time
In my mind
You will always be the one

If you could see into my eyes
Would it change a thing for you and me
If I could fly somewhere somehow
Would it change a thing

Give me time
Give me just a little time
In my mind
You will always be the one
Give me time
Give me just a little time
In my mind
I was never left behind

We can try to work this out
We can fly up in the sky
We can try to work this out
We can find a reason why

We can try to work this out
We can fly up in the sky
We can try to work this out
We can fly up in the sky

Give me time
Give me just a little time
In my mind
You will always be the one
Give me time
Give me just a little time
