You look so peaceful sleeping
You don't know that I'm leaving, but, I'm gone
Well, I did my best to beat them
But in my head the deamons say "move on"
You wake up, you're gonna curse my name
But as some time goes by, I hope and pray

When you think of me
Remember the way that I used to be
Remember the times I held you tenderly
Remember the way that I love you

I'm thinking about the night I met you
I swore I'd never forget you, well I won't
I'm thinking about the way you live and breathe inside
my dreams forever
You'll be better when I'm gone, You'll be better when I'm gone
Cause I know you're gonna fall in love again
I'm sorry this is how it has to end

When you think of me
Remember the way that I used to be
Remember the times I held you tenderly
Remember the way that I love you
Oh, when you think of me

Cause I pick up these bags and turn around
I say a little prayer and hope somehow

When you think of me
Remember the way that I used to be
Remember the times I held you tenderly
Remember the way that I love you

Oh, when you think of me
Remember the way that I used to be
Remember the times I held you tenderly
Remember the way that I love you
Oh, when you think of me
When you think of me
When you think of me
