She says "don't stare at me"
She's afraid that I might see
Those five extra pounds she talks about
And I don't know what she's talking about

She looks through magazines
With every face, she dreams of Looking like somebody else
I wish she wasn't so hard on herself

Then she falls asleep with just my t-shirt on
But even when her hair's messed up and her make-up's gone

You can't hide beautiful
You can't hide wonderful
There's nothing that she has to do
It just comes natural
She makes it look easy
I love what she does to me
No way to disguise
The way that she shines
You can't hide beautiful

She can take a simple dress
Put it on and turn some heads, man
And every time she moves she gets me
She doesn't even know she's sexy

And the way she thinks sometimes
I don't know, it blows my mind
She makes me laugh and makes me dream
I love the way she looks at things

A little peace of heaven god gave to this world
She might think she's just an ordinary girl

But, you can't hide beautiful
You can't hide wonderful
There's nothing that she has to do
It just comes natural
She makes it look easy

I love what she does to me
No way to disguise
The way that she shines
You can't hide beautiful
You can't hide beautiful

She makes it look easy
I love what she does to me
No way to disguise
The way that she shines
You can't hide beautiful
You can't hide beautiful
You can't hide beautiful
