Slow down, that's right
Give it all you got
Yeah, you got the right stuff
Kick back
Let go
Trust yourself you know
Yeah what you got is good enough

Hey don't give em what they think they want
Cause they don't have a clue
Yeah if you really wanna give em something different
Something to sink their teeth into
Well baby, you just do what you do

All eyes were on alicia
They laughed and made her cry
Yeah she was a little different
But hey you know what?
She found a way to fly
You see alicia
She got her strength from the inside

Hey don't give em what they think they want
Cause they don't have a clue
Yeah if you really wanna give em something different
Something to sink their teeth into
Well baby, you just do what you do

The cost of living just went up today
Soon as you started doing things your way
You'll be shakin em off your coattails from every side
They'll be trying to catch that free ride

Hey don't give em what they think they want
Cause they don't have a clue
Yeah if you really wanna give em something different
Something to sink their teeth into
Well baby, you just do what you do

Just do what you do

Just do what you do
Just do what you do
