Hello, come in, surprise you win
After hanging your town
It's all that I've gone
You're living in a dream

Too late when you say
I've changed, you've changed
It's too late when we lay
I've changed, oh no

Where were you, baby?
Where were you, baby?
Let's hear what you do, you

Late news for you, you
All I can say
Is all the shit fades
You should leave me

Feel so razor tongued
You raise the gun
Take a seat, slowly grinned
How are you?

Too late when you say
We've changed, I've changed
If only you listened
I've changed, oh no

Where were you, baby?
Where were you, baby?
Let's hear what you do, you

Late news for you, you
All I can say
Is all the shit fades
You should leave me
