I can't believe you're calling me after all these years After all the pain you put me through you still think I'd she'd a tear
You tell me you're sorry and that you were so blind and time has made you see But honey I'm not the same old big hearted fool like I used to be And baby I may still be just a little crazy but honey I ain't no fool
This old heart still cares but my mind remembers all you put me through So I'll just hang up the phone honey leave me alone don't call me I'll call you Baby I may still be just a little crazy but honey I ain't no fool [guitar]
You tell me you've changed through teary eyes and you're ready to settle down You must've run out of men to be calling again or have you finally come around Sure there was a time I'd take you back in a heartbeat
But my heart has finally learned That what goes around always comes around and the tables have finally turned Baby I may still be just a little crazy...
I'll just hang up the phone...
And I can't believe you're calling me after all these years
