Guess who I saw today, and I asked him about you I saw your new love and it was plain, he cares about you
But I'll wait until he's out of town Then I'll call you up and want to come around

But don't let me touch you, don't let me get close to you Though I might say nice things and I might bring a rose
to you
There's just a chance your old romance might burn
anew
Don't let me touch you, don't let me get close to you

Don't let me touch you, don't let me get close to you Though I might say nice things and I might bring a rose
to you
anew
Don't let me touch you, don't let me get close to you

Don't let me touch you
