'Cause I'm with you again and I can't say goodbye

I just stopped by to say, hello, again
Just to see you and ask how things have been
I shouldn't stay long, there's someone
Waiting just outside, just outside
But I'm with you again and I can't say goodbye

I can't say goodbye like I did before
I can't go, love, and leave you standin' in the door
I look around me at the world that once was mine
I was foolish to leave it all behind
I can't go now no matter how I try and I try
But I'm with you again and I can't say goodbye
I'm with you again and I can't say goodbye
