Faith makes me believe behind the darkest cloud
There's a brighter ray of sun
And if today's not quite as good as yesterday
Tomorrow has yet to come
And I believe each time you reach a mountain top
With faith you see below
A green and shaded valley where
A peaceful gentle river flows

But it takes faith to climb each mountain
It takes faith to climb each mountain
It takes faith to climb each mountain
And it takes faith to face this life

Faith makes me believe for every stormy sea
A peaceful ocean rolls
And I believe for every tree that falls

Another tree will grow
And I believe when faith is used it gives Us strength to have the things we need
The way the sun will give a rose the strength
It takes to grow up through the weeds

But it takes faith to climb each mountain
It takes faith to climb each mountain
It takes faith to climb each mountain
And it takes faith to face this life
It takes faith to face this life
