

Marty Robbins

"One Man's Trash"

Visit "One Man's Trash" on MotoLyrics.com

Hey girl, is that a frown on your face
You don't look like you belong in this place
Why don't you tell me what it is that you've been through
'Cause you're much too pretty to be lookin' like that Tears in your eyes just ain't where it's at Why don't you tell me what that boy has done to you

I said, one man's trash is another man's treasure
One man's pain can be another man's pleasure
Why don't you let me see if I can dry your eyes

Woman oh, woman won't you give me a chance
I'll help you through your broken romance
Why don't you let me be the one to raise your smile
'Cause the party's over, everyone has gone home
You shouldn't have to spend the night all alone
I know a place where you and I can go for a while

I said, one man's trash is another man's treasure

One man's pain can be another man's pleasure
Why don't you let me see if I can dry your eyes

I said, one man's trash is another man's treasure
One man's pain can be another man's pleasure
One man's trash is another man's treasure
One man's pain can be another man's pleasure
Why don't you let me see if I can dry your eyes

Visit Marty Robbins page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.