

Marty Robbins

"That's All She Wrote"

Visit "That's All She Wrote" on MotoLyrics.com

Dearest baby,
Let me thank you for bein' a friend of mine
While you're readin' these words
I'll be gone like a bird in the winter time
But I'm takin' with me all the
Sweet, sweet memories we made as my souvineers
It's a shame that the laughter
Didn't outweigh all the tears

That's all she wrote
Everything that I own in a small envelope
Leavin' me so alone that I wanted to die
The moment when I read her note
That's all she wrote

I keep dreamin' that I'll wake up
And find you here with me
And as we love as before
Every dream becomes more a reality
Guess I'm losin' my mind to go on hopin'
I'll find that nothin' is wrong
There's your goodbye letter

Remindin' me that you're gone

That's all she wrote
Everything that I own in a small envelope
Leavin' me so alone that I wanted to die
The moment when I read her note
That's all she wrote

Oh, I wanted to die
The moment when I read her note
That's all she wrote

Visit Marty Robbins page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.