Do you mean what you say
You're still leavin' today
There's no feelin' inside
Where love used to live
Packin' bags and goodbyes
With no tears in your eyes
You must know in your heart
What that's doin' to me

But what if I said I loved you
Would it make any difference at all
What can I say to
Keep you from goin' away
What if I said I need you
Is there really no change in your mind
What if I said I love you
Just one more time

Never say, never more
Leave me one open door
Leave me one thread of hope
I can hold with my heart
Well' I know that you cared
It's a feeling we shared

We may find it again
If you'll stay where you are

But what if I said I loved you
Would it make any difference at all
What can I say to
Keep you from goin' away
What if I said I need you
Is there really no change in your mind
What if I said I love you
Just one more time
What if I said I love you
Just one more time
