Our home is like a prison, where we're both servin' time
I'm a stranger in your world now, and it's drivin' me out of my mind
Drifting apart, drifting apart.
Darlin' we're drifting apart.
Out of reach, out of heart
We're slowly drifting apart.
Sometimes I remember, when our love was so young and new
How could such a perfect picture, be shattered and broken in two.
Drifting apart, drifting apart
Darlin' we're drifting apart
Out of reach, out of heart
We're slowly drifting apart.
Out of reach, out of heart
We're slowly drifting apart.
