Lester: Here's a little number right here now that ah Marny and me'd like to try to do for ya.
It's one that, ah, Mac Wiseman and myself recorded a few years ago and it's out of print right now and, a lotta folks still, askin' for this one, and, and ah, you be Mac.

Marty: Oh, I'd, ah I'd be delighted

Lester: I'd be delighted!

Marty: I'd be delighted!

Lester: You're about the size of Mac now.

Marty: That's the truth

Lester: It's called THE BLUEBIRDS SING FOR ME

Marty & Lester: There's a bluebird singin', there's a bluebird singin'

In the Blue Ridge Mountains, in the Blue Ridge Mountains, callin' me, back to my home

Oh I can hear, I can hear, bluebirds callin', bluebirds callin',

Callin' me, back to my home

Raymond: My time to sing one

Marty: Your turn Raymond, do it

Raymond: There was a girl, I loved so dearly

She lived a way, back in the hills

When the bluebirds sing, I miss my darlin'

She loved me I know, and she always will

Marty & Lester: There's a bluebird singin', there's a bluebird singin'

In the Blue Ridge Mountains,
in the Blue Ridge Mountains, callin' me, back to my home

Oh I can hear, I can hear, bluebirds callin', bluebirds callin'

Callin' me, back to my home

Lester: Sing me one Mac

Marty: When I reach my home, I was oh, so lonely

The one I loved, had gone away

The sad, sad news, came from her mother

She's restin' there beneath the clay, quick

Marty & Lester: There's a bluebird singin', there's a bluebird singin'

In the Blue Ridge Mountains,
in the Blue Ridge Mountains, callin' me, back to my home

Oh I can hear, I can hear, bluebirds callin', bluebirds callin'

Callin' me, back to my home

Marty & Lester: There's a bluebird singin', there's a bluebird singin'

In the Blue Ridge Mountains,
in the Blue Ridge Mountains, callin' me, back to my home

Oh I can hear, I can hear, bluebirds callin', bluebirds callin'

Callin' me, back to my home
