Sky fell on your face
Smothered you in blue
And when you shook it off
Your history fell through

Another chapter gone
Your character's alive
They live inside your head
They make you laugh and...

Time has come
Upon the sinking of the sun

Goodbye

Blushing in the wind
Roasting by the fire
Lying in your bed
As solitude conspires

Shakes you till you sleep
Doesn't leave you long
Pretends to be your friend
When suddenly you're

Falling hands
Shifting secrets of the sands

Goodbye
