I didn't catch your name
Tell it to me again
It's really getting late
How long you gonna wait

Here come the tears
Here come the tears
And you say you're not sad

Miracles don't last
They fade into the past
If I'm in your way
You only have to say

Here come the tears
Here come the tears
It's hard to walk away

Only yesterday your face was beamin' bright
Your eyes sparkle like polished jewels
Deep into the night
When morning came you felt the same
Yet hardly said goodbye
But all that's just a memory
Melting in the ice

Come now with me
Let's go across the street
The cushions are so soft
You can put up your feet

Here come the tears
Here come the tears
Here come the tears
Cry them over me
