Well I wonder if you'll ever see me dancing
In a reggae club in Stockholm in the day
Will the sky be blue and the snow still be falling
Will the night belong to someone else today
Will you be there

If I'm fucking up so badly, but I love you
If the journey's looking dark, will I return
Will the night time come and take the days away from you
Will the shadows fly in uniform and burn
Will you be there

I don't think so
I know so
I don't think so
I know so

The tragedy of everything you mentioned
And it's the truth that's in your words that really hurts
When I look into your eyes I see the love has gone
And I don't know if it's for better or for worse
Will you be there

I don't think so

Even though the night is looking handsome
And the stars are looking pretty in the sky
Even though we dream that we will be there
Do you think that we will be there when we die
Will we be there

I don't think so
