In sleep I'm spending so much time
It must be good there
When I awake I start to explore
Explode through the door
My skill more and more
Then rich direct this full shell
Is brimming, burning, brimming, burning
To where I am now
In time I'll slot this active breath
My mouth is moisture
Now I'm talking listening you're speaking
Reach what you're seeking
I patched what was leaking
Now sure stampeding, stumbling
Clawing, bleeding, clawing, bleeding
To where I am now
I'm a coin that won't stop spinning
Can't tell if I'm winning
Exposed by the commitments of choosing
When winning's losing
It's so confusing
The climax to the last hot moment
Spinning, singing, turning, burning, growing, flowing
I'm spinning
I'm singing
I'm turning
I'm burning
To where I am now
