"Will I Start To Bleed"

Silence floats into the room
Whispers to me out of tune
And I wonder if these deadly
Awkward moments stay
Stabbing their spikes into me,
Will I start to bleed
Cont'

Raise your eyes until they're mine
Lift yourself towards the light
Your face looks like a waterfall to me
If I concede
What is it going to mean
Will I start to bleed
Magnetic field around your heart
I'm sure I felt the engine start
But what if all the fuel runs out
Glad I didn't stay with you
So much more for me to do
I am free like Matthieu
In "The Age of Reason."
But something is missing
Will I start to bleed
