I'm feeling down, my senses abound
'Cause I can't get the one I want to Can't get the one I want to
Don't ask me the time, my watch doesn't mind
I've neglected my taste and I'm drinking cheap wine
'Cause I can't get the one I want to love
So I'm just bidding my time
Drunk as drunk, the wine's just fine
There's so many people trying to get to
Get to the one they want to

Get to the one they want to
Get to the one they want to love
So I'm just bidding my time
Till I see you again, the wine'll do fine
I can't get the one I want to
I can't get the one I want to
I can't get the one I want to love
