[Lyrics: Part I: Daniel Mongrain]

[Lyrics: Part II: Francois Mongrain]

"Aspiring to the state of human ideal
Which lies somewhere between
The dream mind and the subconscious mind."

[Part I:]

I am the eye that watches
The masses from a distance
Their movements trouble me
And makes me I'll at ease
Jealous, frightened, motionless
Interaction paralyzes me
Fleeing the predator's enticing gaze
I have become the prey

[Lead: Francois Mongrain]

[Part II:]

Far in the distance
Another Utopia's rising
The future is recovering
From it's passed fall from grace
A stone's throw from the source
Of truth and life I am dying
And this virgin oasis
Fears the day when it will run dry
Far in the distance, I see
Don't leave
Delusory dreams
Let me through
