A closet full of glad rags
All tucked away in a bed that's swank
2 sedans & the latest sports car
Plus a lot of money in the bank
Baby, just give me you in a love affair made for 2
Don't make no mistake about which one I would take

CHORUS:

You're the one (you're the one)
You're the one (you're the one)
You're the one (you're the one)
The only one (the only one)

An all-expense-paid trip around the world
To see the sights I've read about
To travel 'round the world for 'most any girl
Would be a guess beyond a doubt
But if I had to choose between the trip & you
There would be only one thing that I could do
I don't have to come out & say my choice
You can tell by the sound of my voice that...

(Chorus)
(Instrumental)

To go to parties & to dances
& to be the belle of every ball
To have the guys line up for chances
Beggin' me to dance with one & all
Now give me just your romance
You don't even have to know how to dance
I don't need those other guys
You can tell by the look in my eyes that...

(Repeat chorus & fade)
