Girl it's breakin' my heart,
Feelin' the way I've been feelin'.
Well you know what I need,
That this distance and time have been stealin'.
I'm on my way, on my way back honey.
Baby please hold on tight.
There are some things worth more than money.
But I'd sell my soul for a ticket tonight.

Georgia lights, oh how I miss them in your eyes.
Georgia lights, take me home,
Take me home, I'll be there tonight.
Goin' home, goin' home to your georgia lights.

The taste of your sweet country kiss is what I've been missin'.

Every night I spent in your arms I count 'em like blessins'.

I'm on my way, on my way back honey.
Baby keep, keep shinin' bright.
Well my weary soul is tired of runnin'.
But I'd climb a mountain to be by your side.

Georgia lights, oh how I miss them in your eyes.
Georgia lights, take me home,
Take me home, I'll be there tonight.
Goin' home, goin' home to your georgia lights.

Baby wait up for me tonight 'cause I'm coming home,
To your georgia lights.
