I remember this one sunday in october.
You called me up and told me it was over.
I never meant to make much out of it anyway.
I never loved you more than I did that day.

I would say that it's okay. (4x)

It's been so long since we were at this club in amsterdam.
I'll never forget the time I kissed you over and over again.
You said it's not working this way.
I always thought it was.
You said you were gonna change your life
And you started with me.

I would say that it's okay. (8x)
