She took a light saber to my heart
And she picked my brain with a pocket knife
She said, "say what's on your mind."
So I said, "i'm kinda hungry and I hate my life."
She said I was cold as hell, but hell's not cold,
I know, I know
'cause I've been there for the last half hour or so,
And the devil said it never snows

I guess I should wait around□see if the temperature
changes
I guess I should hang around□try on a few more faces
For you

You took me out on a shopping binge
'cause you thought that I was hurting for some cooler clothes
You said, "don't you wanna be all that? "
"like a calvin klein model in a video? "
She said I was cold as hell, but hell's not cold,
I know, I know
'cause I've been there for the last half hour or so,

And the devil said it never snows

I guess I should wait around□see if the temperature
changes
I guess I should hang around□try on a few more faces
For you

She said I was cold as hell, but hell's not cold,
I know, I know
'cause I've been there for the last half hour or so,
And the devil said it never snows

I think I should wait around□see if the temperature
changes
I guess I should hang around□try on a few more faces

I guess I should wait around□see if the temperature
changes
I guess I should hang around□try on a few more faces
