Oh if you wanna do it lets it get it on but how you gonna act this time around before we take it off down to the skin lets get an understanding Girl you didn't understand my philosophy you did not understand you just ran away from me Oh I missed you baby ohh I missed you badly, Honest you, you're the best I ever had You're so bad baby but I must like you like that although you won't let me control this or that I still find you're where it's at Ah now I see you're coming straight to the point they say the more you get baby ah the more you want me yeah darling you're not waisting my time what I see baby is so hard to find although you've been all,all over town baby having your affairs I still got to accept you back angel though you're promiscuious I don't mind a bit cause you're still the greatest lay in bed you're miles away Girl if you run away again surely my heart would never mend don't tell me that the love we made was just for old times sake staying up waiting for you to come home at night was just so hard to take she said that pain might never mend so let's be sometime lovers oh baby that's when my poor heart broke up (Chorus) Well if you got a girl and you want her for your wife you got to treat her good and love her all your life.
