Both: That special tear I shed means you're a part of me Thoughts of you running through my head mean you're a part of me
Yeah, I'm satisfied to know you're a part of me

Marvin: What I want to say is

Diana: All I want to say is Both: That I love you 'cause you're that very special part of me

Marvin: Oh oh baby

Diana: Anytime you look into my eyes (ah yes baby) Can't you see what you mean to me (talk to me)
And every time you hear me speak your name (oh oh oh baby)
Can't you tell what you mean to me (ah mercy)

Both: Wohoh can't move the moon you can't stop the passin' time....
Ain't it plain by now you can't move this love of mine....
Just as simple as a nursery rhyme...

Marvin: What I want to say is

Diana: All I want to say is

part of me

Marvin: Oh when the morning comes I wipe the sleep from my eyes
Well I can't walk away from what I feel inside

Both: Can't find the cure for not having you around (sugar)

Marvin: Oh I've searched far and near ah

But the cure just can't be found no no no

Both: That special cure just out of reach means you're a special part of me

That special cure just out of reach means you're a special part of me

I'm satisfied to know that you're a part of me

Marvin: All I want to say hey hey hey is

Diana: All I want to say is

Both: That I love you 'cause you're that very special, very special

I love you ooh, how else can I explain, I love you 'cause of that special thing

I love you every time I shed that special tear fade > I love you every time I feel that special thing for you
