This trinity, it gets to me
Missing you, aching for quiet
And it's too late to call to New York
You're probably awake, I guess I'm afraid
For weeks I've been crying too much Ditched my zoloft, still I won't be touched
By the world moving by, christmas lights
Can you believe it, already again
(I know you can cause)

You know me better than anyone
Anyone, ever so far
You show me the things I never see
Thanks for completing me... The way that you do
(The way that you do)

News from L.A., well I'm not a big star yet Trying real hard but I can't seem to write what they want
It's so elusive and clear
They'll know it when they hear it
(If they ever do, not like you, cause)

You know me better than anyone
Anyone, ever so far
You show me the things I never see
Thanks for completing me... The way that you do
(The way that you do)

Can you come here and stay, you know it be good for you
It'd be good for me
How're they treating your play, have you found the right job yet
What do the fortunetellers say? We don't have them here....
Not much snow yet this year
I like it so gray -- Feels like a mirror
And my diamond still shines, I wear it at night
Bit I'd be more brilliant with you here...

You know me better than anyone

Anyone, ever so far
You show me the things I never see
Thanks for completing me... The way that you do
(The way that you do)
