How did you recover these stolen parts of me
To know me like an old lover, one I can't deceive
As if you read my pages, as if you were reading me
I don't even know you, your history
But I'm feeling almost paralyzed with the chemistry
Sleeping soundly all my life, I'm suddenly awake Cause you're.....

Too much, too close to me
I'm scared as hell at how much I want this
Too much, capturing too perfectly
Everything I ever wanted
I don't want to lose this feeling

But a kiss...Reaching, Spinning, and a carbonated rush Deep inside me and this rising, sudden flush, reminds me of my body
Now I've never been religious in the usual way
But moment is evolving to a spiritual epiphany
If I weren't tethered to you, locked into this gaze
I'd float away
Cause It's...

Too much, too close to me
I'm scared as hell at how much I want this
Too much, capturing too perfectly
Everything I ever wanted
I don't want to lose this feeling

If I could close this door, if tonight is not the night I'm waiting for
It's cause I just can't bear to make this something ordinary
Let it turn to anything but more
But you move so slow, each touch is an infinity
A delicious kind of tragedy
I've got to pull you in, Draw you in to me
Cause it's...

Too much, too close to me
I'm scared as hell at how much I want this
Too much, capturing too perfectly

Everything I ever wanted
I don't want to lose this feeling
