Didn't see me, you didn't see me at all
Couldn't hear me, so you couldn't have heard me fall
And you never knew though I did everything I could do
'Cause I, I was invisible to you

Lost my shadow, crossed my shadow with yours
Passed a mirror, got no reflection there anymore Since you walked right through, now I can't even seem to be blue
'Cause I, I was invisible to you
Oh I, I was invisible to you

Two in the morning
Staring at these pictures on my wall
It's funny how the pictures never call
And you never knew
Though I did everything I could do
'Cause I, I was invisible to you

Didn't see me, you didn't see me at all
Couldn't hear me, so you couldn't have heard me fall
And you never knew though I did everything I could do
'Cause I, I was invisible to you
Oh I, I was invisible to you
