As I reach out my hands to you
The one who reaches out for me
I can feel confidence
And I can feel your strength

As I stretch out my arms to you
The one who stretches out for me
I can feel your affection
And I can feel your peace

You are here to help me now in my time of need
You are here to help me and I will not be afraid

As I reach out my hands to you
The one who reaches out for me
I can feel confidence
And I can feel your strength

Though I may not know how
I know that there is a way
Give me the courage I need
Give me, give me a time and place

You are here to help me now in my time of need
You are here to help me and I will not be afraid
No, no, I will not be afraid
