Verse 1

You ever let anybody
See the real you
You were hiding it
You were hiding the truth

When you found a girl
You tried to tell her lies
But she didn't believe them
Did you think she would cry

Never wanted a joke on ya
Always wanted things to go your way
But she wasn't the type to hurt
And she got your game

Chorus

Boy you were undercover
Until she found out the real you
Never thought anyone could measure
But she found the truth
You ran into a trap
And didn't know you would fall through
You took a chance
And then didn't know what to do
You were no longer undercover

Verse 2

You always tried to
Stay identified
You didn't know she would find out
And see through your lies

But you saw her
And you thought you had a time
To play that game on her

But if you had bet a dime

Never wanted a joke on ya
Always wanted things to go your way
But she wasn't the type to hurt
And she got your game

Chorus

Boy you were undercover
Until she found out the real you
Never thought anyone could measure
But she found the truth
You ran into a trap
And didn't know you would fall through
You took a chance
And then didn't know what to do
You were no longer undercover

Bridge

Undercover no more
She walked out the door
She said bye for sure
She forgives you for what you did to her
She says bye bye boy

Chorus x2

Boy you were undercover
Never thought anyone could measure
You ran into a trap
And then didn't know what to do
