Verse 1

Standing on the edge
I wonder why it had to be
I guess that we wearnt soul mates
And you're no good for me

Saying I may be crazy
But I'm not and you were here
With me until the day came
And you know I was left in tears

I thought we were
Meant to be together
But I guess we were
Meant to be whatever
We used to say forever
But now we are saying never

Chours

That was my wishful thinking
I didn't see your headlights blinking
On and on
On and on
I thought we could always be
But you wearnt meant for me
I was wrong
I was wrong
All I hoped would be
That was my wishful thinking

Verse 2

Turning the page over
Flipt the script and what ima do now?
I bow my head to pray
Please lord, help me to smile

People look at me
They talk in this world
But I am only one person
I am only one girl

I thought we were
Meant to be together
But I guess we were
Meant to be whatever
We used to say forever
But now we are saying never

Chorus
That was my wishful thinking
I didn't see your headlights blinking
On and on
On and on
But you weren't meant for me
I was wrong
I was wrong

Bridge
I wished we would be forever
And I thought we could be
I wished we would be together
And I thought we were meant to be
All of the things I ever knew
I thought I was right for you
But you were not right for me
And I guess we were never meant to be

That was my wishful thinking

Chorus
That was my wishful thinking
On and on
On and on
I was wrong
I was wrong
